Mr. President, the next bill for consideration, LB 58 was a bill originally introduced by Senators Smith and Wesely. (Read title.) The bill was introduced on January 10 of this year, at that time referred to Health and Human Services. The bill was advanced to General File, Mr. President. I do have Health Committee amendments pending.

SENATOR WARNER:    Thank you.    Senator Wesely, adoption of the committee amendments, consideration of the committee amendments.

SENATOR WESELY:    And, hopefully, the adoption, thank you. Mr. President, members, this is a fairly minor committee amendment. The bill deals with the Community Aging Services Act and does reflect the need to make some changes based on federal
